

EMERGING HEALTH LEADERS SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

EXCEPTIONAL LEADER

Applicants to the Emerging Health Leaders (EHL) Program interested in applying for the Michael G. DeGroot Health Leadership Academy (HLA)'s Exceptional Leader scholarship must respond to the following questions in their online EHL program application.

The Exceptional Leader Scholarship will recognize leadership contributions to McMaster University, the local community, a group of individuals or a single individual. The successful recipient(s) will be someone who has demonstrated their leadership capacities that are increasingly required to be successful in today's health environment. To be eligible for consideration, candidates must be accepted into the Emerging Health Leaders program.

The scholarship has a monetary value of $1,500 that will be used to offset the program's tuition fee.

The admissions committee will review each application. Applicants moving to the interview stage for acceptance to the EHL program will be contacted directly. Scholarship eligibility will be evaluated at the time of the interview. All questions about the program or application process can be directed to Amanda Calzolaio at calzola@mcmaster.ca
