

How Might Emerging Health Leaders Innovate Ontario's Health System?

On Feb 14, 2018, the Michael G. DeGroot Health Leadership Academy hosted an event called Leading Health Systems Innovation. During the Think Tank portion of the evening, Emerging Health Leaders shared their feelings about the current Ontario Health System, what they can do to improve it, what role they see themselves playing in Ontario's health system, and how they see the health system changing in the next 10 years.
